MEMORANDUM FOR: CIA Employment Policy Officer

SUBJECT: Regulations and Procedures Under E. O. 10590
Establishing the President's Committee on Government Employment Policy

1. The attached Memorandum No. 1 from the Chairman of the President's Committee on Government Employment Policy, dated 31 March 1955, was referred to the Director of Personnel by the Office of the Director of Central Intelligence. It appears that this is the only copy of the Memorandum received by the Agency, and I am referring it to you as a matter for your attention.

2. We have noted that section 12 of the regulations attached to Memorandum No. 1 requires that 2 copies of our Agency regulations for handling complaints of discrimination shall be referred to the Committee. CIA Regulation 20-11, Fair Employment Procedures, provided for the handling of complaints under E. O. 9980 which was rescinded by E. O. 10590. Please let me know if you desire assistance from this Office in the preparation of a new regulation under E. O. 10590.

3. Because of our interest in this subject, we have taken the liberty of detaching one copy of the regulations attached to Memorandum No. 1. We will be glad to forward this to your office if you wish.

Harrison G. Reynolds
Director of Personnel
